Honoring those on the front lines.

As many of us are looking for ways to help nurses, doctors, and others so desperately working to save lives, Panera® wants to make it easy. Now, you can order lunches to be distributed at participating hospitals nationwide.

Here’s how it works:

1. Select a location. Choose from hundreds of participating medical facilities—and the list is growing!

2. Select an amount. Choose the number of lunches you’d like to provide.

3. We’ll deliver! Panera will prepare and deliver the order to your selected location on your behalf.

Order at PaneraBread.com/MealsForHeroes today!

*Beginning May 11, 2020, Panera Meals for Heroes lunch bundles will be available for you to order and to designate delivery to a participating U.S. hospital or medical facility. Panera Meals for Heroes meals are only available for lunch orders at participating U.S. Panera Bread bakery cafes. Menu items subject to change without notice. Orders must be placed online with a credit card. If you have a MyPanera catering rewards account, eligible Panera Meals for Heroes meals orders will count towards future rewards. You can select the number of lunch bundles you would like have delivered to a participating hospital or medical facility. A minimum of one (1) meal must be purchased to be eligible for this program. Please note that due to existing orders on any given day, a change in hospital access, or other unforeseen circumstances, we may not be able to deliver to the facility you designate but will deliver to a facility in your same geographic area. You cannot select the date or time at which a delivery will be made. Delivery fees are waived for Panera Meals for Heroes orders. This purchase is a direct individual contribution to a healthcare facility and not a donation. Panera Meals for Heroes meals are not available on third party delivery orders/sites. Other restrictions may apply.
